Crook elected to office

Marie Crook, a student of the Licensed Practical Nurse class at Ouachita Technical College, was elected parliamentarian recently at the state Health Occupations Students of America fall convention. She will travel with other state officers in June to represent Arkansas at the national convention in Anaheim, Calif.

She is the first student from the local LPN class to be elected to a state office.

Crook is the widow of Phillip G. Crook and has twin sons: Robert, a student at the University of Central Arkansas at Conway, and Richard, a graduate of Southern Technical College.

She is pianist for Fairplay Mis-
